

2 Peter 1:16-21 - They were devoted to the word

What are you devoted to?

Be devoted to the word...

- ...as to a light in a dark place

- ...because this is how God speaks today

For further discussion

- What might someone who followed you around for a few weeks conclude that you were devoted to?
- What might an outsider say that St John's as a whole is devoted to?
- What is the image of a light in a dark place in 2 Peter 1:19 designed to convey about Scripture? Does that attitude match your attitude? What might your attitude look like if it did?
- What does 2 Peter 1:16-21 teach us about why Scripture is to be treated in this way?
- Is it "bibliolatry" (worshipping the Bible in the place of God) to treat Scripture in this way?
- How can we as a church and as individuals devote ourselves more to the word? What will motivate us to do that? What might stop us or distract us from doing that?
